Letter From The Front

The following letter was received by Mr. T. A. Gatz, J. P. Day, at present in the trenches with the Royal Canadian Dragoons:

Modern Packing Plant For Red Deer

UNION STOCK YARDS IN CONNECTION

The need for better marketing facilities for the products of the farm was never more urgent than it is today. In response to the "Patriotism and Production" campaign carried on by the Dominion Government urging the farmers of Canada to increase their production of both grain and livestock, the Alberta farmer has added to his average in crop and increased his livestock.

Up to date, however, no provision has been made to increase the facilities for handling and marketing the live stock of Alberta, of which even year there was a large surplus in excess of the capacity of the packing plants in the province.

Red Deer is the centre of the great farming region of Alberta. Now that jobbers freight rates have been awarded to this city, it is the most logical centre for union stock yards and packing plants in Western Canada.

The construction of stock yards in Red Deer, where live stock buyers from Edmonton, Calgary, Vancouver, Seattle, Toronto and Montreal would meet to purchase cattle, sheep and hogs, together with the building of a large modern packing plant, equipped with cold storage facilities, will confer a great boon not only upon the farmers of this vast region, but also upon the merchants, hotel proprietors and citizens of Red Deer.

At the present time it is costing farmers of Central Alberta approximately 60 cents per hundred pounds freight and shrinkage included to ship hogs to the yards in Calgary. This means a loss of $200 per year. The local farmer would, save this amount per hog by the location of a packing plant within hauling distance. Today a 200 pound hog that costs the Montreal packer at Montreal $20.00 is worth $16.50 at Calgary, and only $13.50 at Red Deer, so that it is costing the Central Alberta farmer $4.70 freight and shrinkage included to deliver hogs to Montreal meat packers.

If the hogs were slaughtered at Red Deer, however, the ham, bacon and lard from a 200 pound pig could be shipped direct from Red Deer to Montreal for $1.80, a clear net saving per hog of $2.90. This is a strong argument in favor of manufacturing the products of the farm into finished products as near to the farm as possible.

Production is the only true source of all real wealth. If we are to have continued and permanent prosperity we must stimulate production; this can best be done by increasing marketing facilities to a point where production is profitable. Given unit fairly fair prices for his products, the farmer will readily increase production, and this means increased prosperity for all.

Prominent members of this community, like W. E. Lord, R. B. Wolcott and J. P. Day, are giving their financial and moral support toward the organization of a modern meat packing company to locate close to Red Deer, and if every member of the community will do his share toward making the proposition a reality, the year 1916 will see Red Deer one of the leading live stock and packing plant centres of Western Canada.

At the present time it is costing farmers of Central Alberta approximately 60 cents per hundred pounds freight and shrinkage included to ship hogs to the yards in Calgary. This means a loss of $200 per year. The local farmer would, save this amount per hog by the location of a packing plant within hauling distance. Today a 200 pound hog that costs the Montreal packer at Montreal $20.00 is worth $16.50 at Calgary, and only $13.50 at Red Deer, so that it is costing the Central Alberta farmer $4.70 freight and shrinkage included to deliver hogs to Montreal meat packers.

A MACHINE GUN FOR RED DEER

City Falls Into Line

GIRLS TRYING TO DO THEIR BIT

All over the west a wave of patriotism has been the result of the call for machine guns. Vancouver wants to send one hundred, Calgary talks of sending forty, a number of villages and towns have already swelled the list with a gun, and now Red Deer falls into line.

Though rare, infinitely, business connections or family prevent you, Mr. Citizen, from taking your place in the trenches and doing your bit in the defence of the Empire, there still remains another way whereby you may materially assist in the wrecking of the power of the Teuton barbarians, and save, perhaps, the lives of yours and others' representatives who are fighting for your liberties on the battlefields of France and Belgium.

Fifty riflemen, though true whelps of the British lion with all his peerless valor and courage, are soon moved down by the iron hail from the German batteries, while a machine gun, the equal of these fifty riflemen, and with longer range, if put out of action, only results in death or injury to one or two, and movement is on foot in the city and district to provide one of these death-dealing but life-saving machines for our boys of C. Squadron of the 12th C.M.R.

At present only two of these guns are assigned to each British regiment, while the opposing Teuton forces, thanks to year of preparation for the present struggle, have acquired a vastly larger number, and to successfully cope with them it is imperative that Britain greatly increase her normal supply.

Major Gault, while in the city last week, stated that one of these machine guns would be very acceptable to the Red Deer boys of the 12th, and Mayor Carswell is also heartily in favor of the movement.

Other places in the province have already taken steps toward supplying their regiments, and Red Deer, boasting the best representation in the forces of the Empire, should not be behind in this contribution.

Two girls at the Windsor, Miss Haste and Mrs. Clarke, anxious to do their bit, started the ball rolling and soon secured over fifty dollars towards the purchase of a gun, and we say all honor to them for their noble work.

POPE'S ENVOY IS TOO PRO-GERMAN
Monsignor Procelli is Being Recalled by the Vatican From Belgium.
London, July 15.—News has been received here from a private source that Monsignor Procelli, the Pope's representative in Belgium, has been recalled by the Vatican owing to his close relations with the German military authorities in Belgium.

His attitude has been greatly resented by Belgian Catholics and they have made representations at Rome that his representations were misleading and have led to a complete misunderstanding by the Pope of the real situation in Belgium.

It is said that it is unlikely that any successor of Monsignor Procelli will be named, because the German authorities resent the withdrawal of that dignitary and will refuse to receive any substitute who may be named by the Vatican.

Hillsdown
The ladies of the Hillsdown Valley Centre branch of the Red Cross Society have made representations at Mr. Fiske's place on Tuesday, July 27th, 2 to 5 p.m. Weather permitting, there will be outdoor games and a book your entries with course clerk on the pier.

During the past few months the above Branch has sent off four parcels of hospital necessities, such as day-shirts, night-shirts, pyjamas, bed-linens, bandages, etc., and two large parcels of old linen for the country.

This is a work that should commend itself to everyone, as those who are wounded in their country's cause fully deserve the best of our care and attention.

A GERMAN'S "HONOR"

This photograph shows Heinrich Handen in the Zomba Prison Court Yard, New York, where he is being led to testify at the hearing of Gustav Stahl, the German reservist now under indictment for falsely swearing that the Lusitania was armed. Handen was found in Cincinnati after a long search. He says that although he knew the Lusitania was to be torpedoed, he urged his Irish sweetheart to make the trip on the boat—she was drowned in the disaster—so that he might be able to board the ship on the day she sailed and spy about to ascertain whether or not she was an armed vessel. The German witness-prisoner will swear that there were no guns on board the ill-fated Lusitania on her last trip.

TURKEY WANTS SEPARATE PEACE

This is Report Coming From Rome and Confirmed by Diplomatic Source

Rome, July 15.—That Turkey has made overtures for a separate peace is confirmed by information from a diplomatic source, but the negotiations are not being carried on in Switzerland as reported, and the Turkish government has not sent emissaries here.

Instead the Turkish diplomats in the Balkan states are indirectly communicating with representatives of the entente powers, who are authorized to act as intermediaries and fix conditions of peace.

The fulfilment is distant as yet, inasmuch as the entente will not conclude negotiations unless the Turks consent to the unconditional occupation of Constantinople and the simultaneous closure of the Austro-German prisoners of war.

The disagreement between Enver Pasha, General von Doltz, General Liman von Sanders and the German ambassador necessitating the departure of the ambassador is now confirmed. Many Germans are leaving Constantinople for Berlin as the morale of the Turks is consequently low.

The successful defence of the Dardanelles is due to the lack of ammunition, which is believed to be sufficient for only another fortnight. The mortality and anarchy among the Turkish troops is appalling. Food, especially bread, is scarce. The wheat crop of Anatolia has been ruined, and discontent is widespread. The Muslim priests are no longer preaching a holy war, but are devoting themselves to urging calmness.

Need Machine Guns
Ottawa, July 16.—The militia department's request that federal contributions be made to fighting the war in Canada take the form of machine guns is meeting with steady response. One of the latest contributions is a donation of $5,000 from the members of the Mountain Lumber Manufacturers' association of British Columbia to purchase machine gun equipment for the 5th Kootenay battalion, which is a mountain regiment.

ARE THE FACTORIES OF CANADA ORGANIZED?

Industrial Canada wants to know: "Why are not the factories of Canada more fully organized to manufacture munitions of war?"

Ten months passed before the factories of the United Kingdom were organized. While it is true that a great many war orders have been placed in the factories of Canada they are still far from utilizing their entire capacity for making all sorts of articles needed by the Allies.

There is little use dwelling on the mistakes of the past in so far as they spur us on to improve the present and future.

The question is, are we awake now?

Since the war started the principal concern of Canadian manufacturers was not whether they could make war munitions but whether they could get the orders. Many, after trying in vain to secure orders, gave up in disgust. Many are still seeking orders without success.

If the Allies are as short of munitions as they claim, no factory in Canada that can make them should be idle. Instead of manufacturers chasing war orders, war orders should be chasing manufacturers.

This very question is bothering The News.

Here we have two splendid shells capable of turning out shells. The Broughtons, father and son, have worked in the Armstrong works and have made shells. Mr. Rose is a competent machinist, and would gladly turn his garage into a shell factory, but they do not seem to be wanted. These men cannot leave their machine shops; the government should come to the shops. Both these firms are willing and anxious to help in any way they can making shells or working for the government in any other way. But they do not seem to be wanted. There seems to be a new loss somewhere, and the sooner it is tightened up the better it will be for Canada if we want to win in this fight.

AMERICA'S VERDICT UPON THE KAISER.

What the verdict of the American people is upon this war has never been more forcibly stated than by Samuel Hazen Church, president of the Carnegie Institute, Pittsburgh, and at a time when the relations between the United States and Germany are so great an issue, it is worth while to review the article he wrote in response to the famous appeal of the 93 German professors and scientists which was addressed to the neutral world some months ago. These professors asserted in the first place that Germany wanted peace, and that the violation of Belgium's neutrality was not to be charged to her, but rather to Britain and France, which has previously arranged to invade Belgium in their march upon Germany, with Belgium's consent. They appealed to the shades of all the great Germans in the past to support them when they swore that the war upon Germany's part was a war of defence, and that the Fatherland was the victim of a conspiracy to blot her out of the number of the great nations.

President Church acknowledges the debt the world owes to the great dead Germans of the past; but he finds it difficult to believe that the illustrious men who signed the German appeal have read the official documents. How could they say that the war was forced upon Germany in face of the admission of the Imperial Chancellor, who admitted in the Reichstag that in violating Belgian neutrality Germany was committing a wrong, which would be made good as soon as Germany's military goal had been reached? Later he said: "Necessity forced us to violate the neutrality of Belgium, but we had promised emphatically to compensate that country for all damage inflicted." In the face of these official announcements, it is to insult the intelligence of readers or hearers to say that Germany did not violate Belgium's neutrality, or that she did so only after the Allies had done so.

Answering the assertion of his respondent that Germany did not begin the war President Church uses these memorable words: "If Germany is not guilty, then, in God's name, why are our armies in Belgium? Why are they in France? If you had waited until you had been attacked, you would never have found your nation at war. Your Imperial Chancellor says that you have violated international law and that you will endeavor to make good the wrong you are committing. Why, all the gold you could give to France and Belgium in a thousand years, and all the penitential prayers you could utter in every hour of a thousand years, together with the contrition of a shamed and broken heart, would not repair your ruin nor dry up the ocean of human tears which have accompanied your hideous invasion. People sometimes ask us: 'Would you rather have the Slav than the German?' And the reply is always to the same effect: 'Yes, since we have seen the German at war, we would rather have the Slav, rather the Turk, rather the Hottentot.'"

In the opinion of President Church, who has visited Germany, the war began potentially 25 years ago when the Kaiser ascended the throne and proclaimed himself Supreme War Lord. From that time his children were raised from the cradle to consider themselves soldiers; and here in America we know even his daughter only by her photograph in a colonial's uniform. The man wearing the Kaiser's uniform became at once a member of an exclusive class. A waiter questioning a score with a drunken officer was stabbed to the heart, his uniform making a pool of blood. A man in humble station who sought to greet with familiar approach a soldier now in officer's uniform was killed for his impudence, the murderer even writing a letter to his victim's mother justifying his crime. "I have missed," says President Church, "seen German officers show goodwill on the street to the United States army. I have seen others of them raise their glasses to the day when they would be at war."

Another paragraph in the reply of Dr. Church to his German correspondent is worth quoting in full, for it expresses, as he declares, the opinion of the great masses of the American people: "And so, at least, we find ourselves shocked, ashamed and outraged that a Christian nation should be guilty of this criminal war. When I say that we hate this conflict and that we exorcise the German militarists who made it, I am uttering the opinion of the great majority of the American people, including hundreds of thousands of our German-American citizens. There was no justification for it. Armed and defended as you were, the whole world could never have broken into your borders. And while German culture still has something to gain from her neighbors, yet the intellectual progress which Germany was making seemed to be lifting her own people to better things for themselves and to an altruistic service to mankind. Your great nation loaded its ships in every ocean, sold its wares in the uttermost parts of the earth, and enjoyed the good favor of humanity, because it was trusted as a humane State. But now all this achievement has vanished, all this good opinion has been destroyed. You cannot but recognize again the spiritual and material benefits which you have lost."

An American citizen in Austria, of Austrian birth, was shot June 14th for using traitorous language. Here in Canada they are fined a few dollars and let off with a warning 'for a similar offence. It is about time treacherous Austrians and Germans were treated the same here as they are in their own country.

ECKVILLE

Much disappointment by the unavoidable postponement of the Woodmen picnic. We must only hope for good weather later, but no date has been fixed.

A. Eckford has been making up the voters' list for the Eckville poll. Don't forget to vote on July 22nd at the Liquor Act, 21st.

The shareholders' general meeting of the Eckville and Gibley Co-operative was held, according to notice, but owing to the bad weather, the members present decided that it was not a representative gathering, and on motion the meeting was adjourned.

Miss Beatrice Clawson is home from school, and is spending the holidays with her parents.

Miss McGregor, who has been attending the Hospital Nurses' Convention at San Francisco is visiting her sister, Mrs. Foster.

Matt Jackson, one of the old-time farmers in the Wood Lake district, and the misfortune to have his home destroyed by fire. Nothing was saved from the house, and the loss is only partly covered by insurance.

Fred Isaacson and family, from the Valley Lamb Co.'s mill, were visitors last week.

H. Woods hopes to install a churn and engine as one of the cheese-making season is over, and it is hoped when butter making starts, the local creamery will get all.

1,000 American Aeroplanes For Use of French Army In The War

Paris, July 16.—One thousand American aeroplanes, purchased with American money, and offered by American aviators, are to be tendered by an American organization, fathered by a former United States ambassador to France, for the use of the French army in the present war.

It is reported that already $1,000,000 has been raised by Americans for the project, and that an American of even greater prominence than the former ambassador soon will come forward as the chief of the organization.

"The effect of the formation is to create an adequate aerial reserve for the United States army, training American aviators in the practical, American school that the present war affords."

The Councilors were instructed to get the numbers of all such sections in their respective divisions.

A letter from the Secretary of the L.I.D. Association, asking the Council to subscribe for the Western Municipal News, was ordered tabled.

A letter from the Sec.-Treas. of the Rocky Mountain House Agricultural Society, asking for a grant of one hundred dollars for the building fund of the Society, was read.

The Council, thinking they were not in a position to give the grant, ordered a letter be placed on file.

GIVES SOUND ADVICE ON PRICE QUESTION

Manufacturers' Organ Gives Warning—No Price Increases Except For Good Reason

"Industrial Canada," the official organ of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, recently contained a strong editorial on the increase of manufacturers' prices, which has come in special industries as a result of the war revenue customs duties.

The editorial is in part as follows: If the manufacturers of Canada make a general advance in the prices of their goods with the deliberate intention to absorb the whole of the recent 1½ per cent. tariff increase, they will formulate a policy which will react disastrously upon themselves.

Such a course is certain to arouse hostility among those consumers who were of the opinion that the tariff was too high before the increase was made; and it will chill the warmth with which the remaining consumers have supported the policy of protection.

Raising prices up to the new limit will operate directly against the "Made-in-Canada" campaign. The 1½ per cent. tariff increase gives the Canadian manufacturer an advantage over foreign competition. If he raises the price of his article 1½ per cent. he immediately loses that advantage. Consequently, the "Made-in-Canada" article which might be sold, is in the same danger of being replaced by the foreign article as it was before the tariff increase was made.

Creates Confidence

Now is the time, under the shelter of slightly increased protection, to encourage the habit of using Canadian goods in preference to foreign goods. Raising prices also tends to diminish output. The buying power of Canadians at present is restricted and every addition to the selling prices of goods makes it more difficult for consumers to buy them. On the contrary, lower prices will allow greater volume of sales, will diminish the consumer's hardship, will give more employment to workers and will tighten the grip of Canadian manufacturers upon their home market.

If the manufacturers will concentrate upon the problem of keeping the prices as nearly as possible at the old level they will create a permanent asset in the gratitude of hard-pressed consumers.

Consumers, however, must not hastily conclude that there will be any increase in the prices of manufactured goods. While any general advance, slung at the unjustifiable absorption of the 1½ per cent. tariff increase cannot be too strongly opposed, it is absurd to argue that no prices should be advanced. Each article must be separated from any sweeping general policy and dealt with on its own merits. What are the items entering into its cost of production? Have they been increased? If they have, it is only fair that the price of the article should be increased. If they are not then the price of the article should stand.

Influence of War

There is, in some quarters, a most unfair attempt being made to lay on the recent tariff measures the entire blame for increased prices in spite of the fact that in countries where no tariff increases have been made, prices are rising. According to the "New York Analyst," the average wholesale price of twenty-five food commodities, representing a theoretical family's food budget, which was 139 in 1913, 146 in 1914, now fluctuates around 154.

Scarcity, interruption to communications, shrinkage in production, and other allies of war are sending prices up all over the world. War always increases the cost of living. It would be strange if Canada should escape the general law. We cannot have it both ways. We cannot profit by war's high prices for what we have to sell and avoid war's high prices for what we have to buy.

A man out of a job, or only partially employed, is a poor customer. You much prefer, don't you, to deal with customers whom you know are earning good wages in thriving local industries? Their credit is good—they pay their bills.

Men Has Wooden Leg

The story is told from Milan, O., of a man living near the birthplace of Thomas A. Edison, which finds a wooden leg every bit as useful as the genuine article. The man is owned by Leonard O'Dell, who carved the leg out of a piece of hickory with a pocket knife and fastened it with plaster of paris and bicycle tape. The man broke his leg trying to scratch frozen gravel.

CANADA AT WAR

CONTRACTS FOR AMOUNT TO

$200,000,000

Sir George Perley is Looking Well After Canada.

Statement Issued by the Acting Minister of Militia.

ORDERS for munitions and equipment for the war are aggregating $200,000,000 have been placed in Canada by Great Britain and the Allied Powers through the medium of the Canadian Government and its assistance and advice to Canadian manufacturers. The Shell Commission created by the Government in the early stages of the war have made possible Canada's participation in munition supplies to the extent of $150,000,000. The tremendous business brought to this country was never realized until the following statement of it in detail was issued by Hon. Senator Lougheed, acting Minister of Militia:

Since the early weeks of the war the Government has made very active SIR GEORGE PERLEY.

The above list may be supplemented by the following list sent out by the Colonial Office and showing other orders placed for the British Government in Canada:

170 tons sections; 1,000,000 Ross bayonets and scabbards; 1,900 tons cordite; 4,600,000 fuses; 15,500 tons sulphuric acid; 100,000 Ross rifles; 125,000 eighteen-pound high explosive shells; 125,000 eighteen P.R. shrapnel shells; 75,000 sets of accoutrements; 42,667 ammunition boxes; 25,000 bandoliers; 150,000 brass brushes; 200,000 shaving brushes; 5,000,000 pounds paraffine candles; 257,700 mess tins; 267,000 pick axes; 50,000 picketing posts; 200,000 picketing pegs; 125,000 shovels; 108,000 fir sleepers; 3,000 aluminium wire rope; 45,900 fuses tetanus antidote; 3,000 crossing timbers; 500,000 water bottles; 11,624,924 pounds bacon; 15,859,573 pounds cheese; 20,446 tons flour; 78,968 pounds fowl; 177,236 tons of oats; 4,636,332 pounds of preserved meat; 12,100 pounds of dried vegetables; 2,000,000 bags of oats; 2,500,000 boot laces; 103,145 great coats; 50,000 jackets; 500,000 trousers; 25,000 coats, sheepskin lined; 512,000 yards white flannel; 1,000,000 cap forsters; 1,040,000 cardigans; 100,000 cholera belts; 500,000 cotton drawers; 1,500,000 woollen drawers; 150,000 fingerless gloves; 50,000 pairs woollen mitts; 200,000 pairs leather mitts; 550,000 pairs worsted socks; 25,000 pairs lumbermen's socks; 50,000 pairs long socks; 200,000 woollen undersuits; 20,000 pairs rubber boots; 1,058,500 flannel shirts; 1,000 pairs shoe packs; 200 tons brass strips; 357 travelling kitchens; 2,000 wagons; 50,000 horse collars.

Huge Russian Order.

An order from the Russian Government for shells obtained by private interests has been allotted a considerable extent in Canada. Payments to Canadian manufacturers on account of this order will, it is stated, probably reach from seven million to ten million dollars.

There have also been obtained large orders for mining explosives and large plants have been created for the purpose. It is anticipated that the shell committee will shortly issue a statement setting forth the amount of orders placed in Canada for the manufacture of empty shell and of fixed ammunition.

Canada is capable of turning out empty shells in very large numbers by means of the organization which has been established through the efforts of the shell committee during the past nine months. In the meantime, however, the situation in Great Britain has changed, and the industries of that country are in a position to turn out empty shells as rapidly as they can be converted into the fixed ammunition necessary for use at the front.

No More Empty Shells Now.

The British Government has advised the shell committee that they want fixed ammunition instead of empty shells, and they do not want any more empty shells at present. In order to clearly appreciate the situation it is necessary to know what is of what a round of fixed ammunition is composed. There are four main parts—the case, the shell, the primer, and the charge of cordite. The present situation is that the factory output for shells in the Dominion exceeds the output of brass cartridge cases or primers and until such time as the output of the latter approximates that of the former nothing would be gained by placing further orders for empty shells.

The output of the factories now engaged in the production of brass cartridge cases will soon be equal to the present output of the factories engaged in the manufacture of empty shells.

Deer Washed Over Wharf.

A big wind and rainstorm which raged at North Bay for a whole day damaged the Government wharf and sank several pleasure launches. A strange episode occurred when a deer was washed over the wharf, the animal having swam with the wind from the Manitou Islands, a distance of seven miles. On reaching land it got its bearings and ran down a west shore, apparently none the worse for its long swim.

Defend Position by Starting Avalanches

Budapest, July 15.—Private advice describes the battle of the Isarco river as the greatest fought on the Italian front. The attacks of the Italians being almost incessant. The bridge head of Goritz has suffered from the bombardment of the fortified places, and the boulders roll down on the enemy like an avalanche.

THE BYTOWN PUMP

One of the causes why Hon. T. White found the supply in the well very low.

SIR ROBERT BORDEN'S VISIT TO ENGLAND

An Event of Unusual Interest and Importance.

The visit of the Prime Minister, Sir Robert Borden, to England at this time should be of unusual interest and importance to the Dominion. Few men in the British Empire are more welcome in the Imperial capital than is Premier Borden. Events have more than justified his naval and policy and have proven the far-reaching significance of his attitude towards Imperial affairs, both in opposition and later as leader of the Government. British statesmen were quick to appreciate the change which the fall of the Laurier Government meant to the destinies of the Empire. The change itself was exemplified in the measure of naval aid which the Borden Government proposed, and which Canada would have given, but for the misadventure of Laurier's majority in the Senate.

HAVE CONFIDENCE IN SIR ROBERT BORDEN.

British statesmen are able to discuss Imperial matters with confidence in Sir Robert Borden without reserve. The conduct of Sir Wilfrid Laurier at the various Imperial Conferences when Imperial co-operation in one form or another was under discussion, did not encourage an absolutely free communication in regard to matters of highest Imperial importance. Fortunately the Dominion is now represented by a man of quite another type. The word and principle of co-operation have replaced the word autonomy, while the principle of autonomy continues to be as sacred and as well-protected as ever it was. The unwillingness of Laurier finds no place in the attitude of Sir Robert Borden, who goes to England and to London, a real leader of the Canadian people, able and ready to express truthfully and rightly their aims and their aspirations, able by reason of his great ability to contribute thoughts and suggestions of real value to a discussion of Imperial affairs.

With Sir Robert Borden the British Ministers know they can speak freely on all subjects of Imperial moment. It is good for Canada that there is at the head of Canadian affairs a man who has never forfeited his right to speak for all Canada, and to expect the fullest share of confidence in Imperial deliberations.

German Plans Are Ruined; Can't Delay Catastrophe, Says Grand Duke Michael

Russians Admit Fall of Przemysl, But Say That Its Capture is of No Strategic Importance to Germans—Germans Are Conducting Offensive Along Almost Entire East Front With Exception of Central Poland—Fighting in West Produces Nothing Outstanding.

Petrograd, July 16.—Russian war office officials today admitted the loss of Przemysl to the Germans, but asserted that its capture would be of no strategic advantage to the Kaiser's forces, the town having been practically destroyed by rifle fire.

The Germans have apparently pressed on from Przemysl, the latest official reports from the front telling of fighting south of that town in which the Russians repelled numerous German attacks.

German attacks are also in progress in the direction of Lomza, the Narva river fortress East-Northeast of Przemysl. Lomza and Polotsk form the Narva defenses of Warsaw. To prevent the massing of immense forces in Northern Poland, where the Germans are now concentrating their attacks, the Germans have resumed their offensive in the Shavla and Niemen districts, while the Austrians on the Danube river are again making attacks in force.

Emperor William is reported to be with the German troops in Northern Poland. His headquarters are said to be at Thorn, from which he travels to various points on the front by motor.

Grand Duke Michael, brother of the Czar, arrived here today after a tour of inspection along the southern front. He said:

"The German plans have been ruined. Whatever success they gain here after cannot delay the final catastrophe which will overwhelm them. The blow at Warsaw from the North is only a desperate effort to snatch victory from defeat. Like the assaults from the west and south, it is doomed to result in failure."

British Troops Are Now Nearing Gallipoli Town

TURKS' LOSSES IN SIX DAYS 25,000

Mitileye, via Athens, July 16.—British reinforcements are reported to have been landed upon the northern shores of the Gallipoli peninsula and are now within three hours' march of the town of Gallipoli, at the entrance of the sea of Marmara, according to word received here today.

Turkish losses in the past six days fighting at the Dardanelles are estimated at 25,000 men. The Anglo-French fleet has rebuffed its fire and the land batteries of the allies have been advanced. The allies in their latest successful drive on the southern tip of the peninsula captured much war material.

The fighting on the Gallipoli peninsula continued with unparalleled fury by day and night. The Turks were subjected to a most terrific bombardment by the allied fleet, and were compelled to surrender three lines of trenches to the British at Derka Tepe.

The French troops on the Gallipoli peninsula are steadily advancing against the main position of the Turks about Kiritia.

Heavy artillery has been posted by the allied forces on the two recently captured positions dominating the Turkish trenches before the town. In the sector of Kiritia the French are advancing against the main positions of the Turks, being supported by the heaviest artillery of the Anglo-French batteries.

Prisoners state that the morale of the Turkish army has been shaken by the furious attacks and the violent bombardment of the allies.

SWINE IN CANADA

The breeds of swine most commonly bred in Canada are the Yorkshire, the Tamworth, the Berkshire, and the Chester White. The Poland-China, the Duro-Jersey and the Hampshire are also bred to some extent. The Yorkshire and the Tamworth are recognized as being especially suitable for bacon production; while the Berkshire, the Chester White and the Hampshire of the improved type, occupy an intermediate position between the bacon and the lard types. The remaining two belong to the fat or lard-producing class, very popular in the corn belt of the United States.

The Yorkshire hog of today is claimed by historians of the breed to have descended almost directly from the old English hog common in the northern counties of England as far back as the beginning of the eighteenth century. This hog was long in head and body and stood high off the ground. He was narrow in body, coarse in bone, had very large ears, and took a long time to mature.

Little was done to improve the breed until about 1760, when Robert Bakewell, the famous stock improver of that time, is said to have applied the principles by which the English Leicester sheep was evolved from the old type. This was to perpetuate only the smaller, finer and more compact animal, which he found had a greater aptitude to fatten than the more rangy and coarser types. Some authorities claim also that the Yorkshire was much helped by the introduction of crosses of the White Leicester, a breed of swine of a finer and finer type than the Yorkshire was at that time.

BREEDING FOR MORE EGGS

Raise Chicks Only From Best Birds in the Flock

Pure-bred fowls lay more eggs and of greater uniformity in shape and color than mongrels or cross-breeds. One should constantly try to build up his flock so that it will be uniformly successful in egg production.

Experts say that this can be done by selecting only the best females from the entire flock, by mating them to good vigorous males, and by using this special mating as a breeding pen. In this way all eggs for hatching should be saved.

In this way one will get a continuous improvement that would not be assured if the entire flock were used to propagate the future layers. The practice of making special breeding pens is bound to result in larger, more vigorous birds, better layers and more profit.

A word of warning is given to use great care in selecting the breeding pen so as not to include any birds which are lacking in constitution or have shown any disease. Some diseases, such as bacillary white diarrhoea, can be directly inherited, while others may give the offspring an inherited weakness which makes them especially susceptible to that particular disease.

BARBARIANS ALWAYS

Germans of Today True Descendants of Bloodthirsty Ancestors

The barbarous manner in which war is being waged by the German armies is attributed by many to a more degenerate type of man than the modern theories of Nietzsche. Yet if we but refer to Sir Herbert Maxwells "Life of William Wallace" (published in 1900) we shall find that the Iron Duke writing to his mother in August, 1807, after describing the failure of the German contingent under General von Linsingen, goes on to say: "I can, however, assure you that, from the general of the Germans down to the smallest drum-boy in their legion the earth never groaned with such a set of murdering, infamous villains."

"They murdered," he says further on, "robbed and ill-treated the peasantry wherever they went." It must be remembered that English eye-witnesses of the Thirty Years' War assure us that the victory the Germans always began a massacre, slaughtering soldiers, civilians, men and women and children indiscriminately. The German, in fact, is a true child of the old block—the Goth, his ancestor.

CONSERVING FUR SUPPLY

Warning Note to Canadian Trappers—Greed Exterminating Animals

Canada is the greatest fur producing region of the world, especially when quality is considered. In this vast area there are millions of fur-bearing animals—but their number, because of the rapid settlement is gradually diminishing. Even the most ardent support of fur protection is forced to admit that the game supply of Canada is growing less. And the remedy? It lies not so much in laws which are hard to enforce, but in the common sense of the trapping fraternity, as a whole.

Few people realize the loss the trappers of America bear each season from trapping before furs are in good condition. To illustrate, says a writer in Rod and Gun, I called Mr. B. A. Sloman's attention to the great piles of inferior quality furs which lay in the great collecting rooms of Mr. Sloman & Company, of Detroit. Especially did I notice the skunk—thousands of pelts—which were worth perhaps from ten cents up to fifty, and showed Mr. Sloman that on this pile of skins alone the trappers had lost, at a conservative estimate, approximately $3,000.00. They would have been worth that amount had the skins been taken from six to eight weeks later. And this pile represented but a collection of unprime skunk in less than a week only, in one of the many large fur warehouses.

Few dealers realize the loss to the trapper in unprime goods. The trappers themselves, as a class, do not. The reason for this is greed. And with the laws in force, as they now stand, it is an absolute fact that not one offence either in Canada or of the Timpani and the interesting Cobalt district.

At the time of my talk with Mr. Sloman I suggested to him the advisability of a combination of the different fur dealers all over Canada, in petitioning the various legislative bodies of the Dominion to make the trapping season to such a period as would make it impossible to trap unprime furs—and to make it a criminal offence for any buyer to receive or have in his possession any unprime skins.

Mr. Harvey Agnew, a well known fur buyer, very much interested in the proposal, and pointed out the fact that while the dealers would not receive so many pelts nor the trapper take so many, prices would be higher, thereby enabling both the buyers and the pelt hunters to realize as much as they could under the system which they now have.

Mr. Sloman, too, was very much taken with the project, and assured me that he would do what he could to further the plan, even going so far as to offer to take the matter up with the various fur dealers and get the petition before the various law-making bodies.

Something ought to be done for the protection of the fur-bearing animals. While laws may help, the solution, it seems to me, lies in the hands of the trappers themselves. You do not need to realize yet, in many localities, that fur-bearing animals are being exterminated. But those trappers of the States know positively how they have wasted their fur supply. Where but a few years ago the mink, otter, beaver and raccoon, played along the streams in numbers, there are but a few tracks of muskrat, where the wolf and fox hold forth, the sight of one of these animals is heralded in the daily press. You then, of the great North, take heed! Unless something is done at once to protect the fur-bearing animals, in a few years they will be but a memory, the same as they are in many localities in the United States.

GALLIOLI PENINSULA

Gallipoli Peninsula, the Chersonesus Thracica of classical geography, is a fruitful land, whose conditions at one time gave promise of a world-important commercial future. The Turkish occupation of 1847, however, put off this promise, according to the National Geographical Society, "and the land has remained as obscure to the twentieth century as it was to the Greeks of Pericles' Athens. The wonderful waterway which stretches behind it toward the heart of central Asia has remained stagnant at all development."

Gallipoli Peninsula forms the European bank of the Dardanelles. To the north it is inclosed by the deeply bayed Gulf of Saros. The soil of this district are exceedingly fertile and well adapted to agriculture. The peninsula is a hilly rib of land fifty miles in length and varying between three and thirteen miles in breadth. It supports about 100,000 people. It was the first section of European land to come under the domination of the crescent.

A few years ago it was grown in considerable quantities there, and are exported to the Aegean islands and to Turkish ports. Barley, oats and linseed were raised largely for Great Britain, and canary seed was exported to Australia.

NEW TRANSCONTINENTAL SERVICE TO THE EAST

Winnipeg, July 13.—An important announcement is made today. The Dominion is to have a new service between Eastern and Western Canada.

Past passenger service is to be inaugurated on July 13th, westbound and July 15th eastbound between Toronto and Winnipeg over the Canadian Government Railway, (The Transcontinental). The Grand Trunk System and the Tensikaming and Northern Ontario Railway.

These three railways are combining to make this new service of a superior class in every respect. "The National" is the appropriate name which has been chosen for the principal train on both its east and westbound journeys.

This train will leave Toronto each Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, and Winnipeg on each Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday. Its equipment consists of a sleeping car, electric-lighted first class coaches, tourist and standard sleeping cars and dining car, which will be operated through without change.

The mileage by this new route between Toronto and Winnipeg is 1267 miles, and "The National" will make a fast run, covering the distance in forty-two hours. Westbound passengers leave Toronto at 10:45 p.m. and travelling over the Grand Trunk line are at North Bay at 7:00 o'clock next morning. A splendid daylight run is then made over the Tensikaming and Northern Ontario Railway, through the scenic beauties of the Timpani and the interesting Cobalt district.

Cochrane is reached at 4:25 p.m., and "The National" shares begins its journey over the main line of Canada's Transcontinental with its solid roadbed, little curvature and no noticeable gradients, all contributing to the greatest degree of comfort by day or night. It traverses a country of wonderful possibilities in which tens of thousands of settlers will carve out their homes in the future.

The region between Cochrane and Winnipeg is one possessing great attractions for the sportsman, as well as the settler, for here are situated some of the finest fishing waters on the continent, where big game abounds in the forests. There is an ever changing panorama of beauty. Great rivers, flowing north and south, have their source in this equally as deadly. News to this effect, he stated, would appear in the newspapers in a few days. Major de Marquis, who has been lecturing in Australia, is now passing through Canada, and rejoins his regiment with King-Albert on August 15.

Before entering the province of Manitoba the train runs through the famous Nibinagan (country of lakes) region, another of Canada's magnificent holiday resorts, reaching Winnipeg at 3:50 p.m.

Eastbound "The National" leaves Winnipeg at 5:15 p.m., arriving Cochrane at 6:15 p.m. Next day and Toronto eighteen hours later, arrival in the Queen City being timed at 12:05 noon.

At Winnipeg the Grand Trunk Pacific line affords splendid connections for all important points in Western Canada, the Pacific Coast, California, etc., and also furnish a new short route to Alaska and the Yukon, traversing the Canadian Rockies and other marvels of scenic interest.

The opening of this new route makes an epoch in the history of Canada as the new service will provide for the fast through travel from Halifax to Prince Rupert, Vancouver, Victoria, and other Pacific Coast cities, via all Canadian Route, in the Canadian Government Railways (Intercolonial Railway) in the East connecting with the Grand Trunk Railway System in a Union Station (Bonaventure) Montreal, thence Tensikaming and Northern Ontario; Transcontinental Railway and Grand Trunk Pacific connecting in the Union Station at Winnipeg, forms a continuous band of steel from ocean to ocean.

Publications pertaining to this new route with ocean to ocean map may be procured from all principal ticket agents and passenger representatives of the Canadian Government Railways and Grand Trunk System.

French Will Reply to Use of Gas With Use of Turpenite

Moore Jaw, July 15.—Major de Marquis, of the 1st Regiment of King Albert's Life Guards, speaking at a meeting here tonight under the auspices of the Red Cross Society, stated that the French government had intimated that if Germany used asphyxiating gas against the French army would use turpenite which was equally as deadly. News to this effect, he stated, would appear in the newspapers in a few days. Major de Marquis, who has been lecturing in Australia, is now passing through Canada, and rejoins his regiment with King-Albert on August 15.

GERMAN ATTACKS IN NORTH POLAND ALL HAVE FAILED

Petrograd Reports Losses of Besiegers at Ossowetz at 15,000

Petrograd, July 15.—All the German attacks by Northern Poland during the last three days have resulted in failure, the war office announces. The enemy is stated to have suffered severely.

Press advices from Ossowetz say that the German losses in the attempts to reduce that fortress are estimated by Russian officers at 15,000 killed and wounded. Successful sorties by the garrison have driven the besieging forces back three miles to the second line of trenches.

Because of the spectacular phases of the recent Galician struggle, the attack on Ossowetz has been almost overlooked for several weeks. Desperate contests have been in progress there ever since the Germans invested the fortress from the north.

Russian aviators active. All day long the Russian and German guns keep up a continuous fire, while all night either one side or the other launches infantry attacks. In both phases of the fighting the Russians have been superior thus far. The heavy guns of Ossowetz have prevented the Germans from bringing up their 17 inch howitzers. Russian aviators make hourly flights over German positions, directing the fort's artillery. One of the German guns succeeded in getting the range of Ossowetz. This sent three shells into the town, killing fifty civilians. Immediately the Russian aviators ascertained its location and two shots completely silenced it, wrecking the gun and killing its crew.

NO CHANGE IN SOUTH POLAND

The situation on the South Poland front shows no change of importance. In the Galician local conflicts have resulted to the advantage of the Russians.

Near Otti, a Russian detachment made a surprise attack on a Turkish post, Sunday night. Practically all the defenders of the position were bayoneted or captured. The opposing infantry forces in the coast district continue their rifle fire from the trenches.

Final Rally

Rev. Principal Lloyd, of the Anglican College, Saskatoon, veteran of the North-west rebellion, and one of Western Canada's foremost temperance advocates of today, addressed a rousing prohibition rally in the Faith Hall Monday evening.

A representative of two classes, the Anglican and the pioneer, whose attitudes towards the Liquor Act have been the subject of much discussion and comment, the opinions of Rev. Principal Lloyd were of peculiar interest to the voters on today's plebiscite.

In commenting, the speaker stated that the prohibitionists bore no animosity against the hotelkeeper as such, desiring in fact only to raise him up to the level of themselves. Humorously illustrating this point, the speaker compared the hotel to a victim of appendicitis, the bar to the appendix, and the people of Alberta to the doctor who operates on the patient. The operation causing momentary pain but resulting in ultimate good.

Why, he contended, could we not raise our hotels, public necessities for public accommodation, to the level of other public edifices which we exhibit to visitors with pride?

Continuing, Principal Lloyd remarked that the question in Alberta was being judged largely from the economical standpoint, truly an important one, but vastly inferior, he contended, to the moral issue.

Referring to the bringing in of Mr. Windle by the liquor party, the speaker contended that traffic was pretty rotten which could not find platform defenders in Canada and had to import them.

Dealing with the biblical defence of the liquor interests by this worthy importation, and his assertion that prohibition was unchristian, the speaker stated that 90 per cent. of the ministers of the gospel in Alberta were prohibitionists, and they must be extremely ignorant of the book from which they teach, or Mr. Windle is trying to put something over the people of Alberta. He further explained the difference between the wine mentioned in the New Testament and the wine of today, and noted the many warnings in the Bible against strong drink, which failed to attract the attention of the Victorian Association's importation.

The speaker further rebuked Mr. Windle's argument of meeting taxation and unemployment resulting from prohibition, and derided his bombastic utterances that if the liquor Act passed there would ensue an industrial hell and the star of hope of modern civilization would set in a black sea of night and anarchy.

Concluding, the speaker gave some scathing imitations of the devastating effects of liquor directly and indirectly in the home, and requested an overwhelming vote for prohibition on Wednesday.

An enthusiastic vote of thanks was tendered the speaker, after which the meeting closed with the National Anthem.

Alderman G. W. Smith occupied the chair during the evening.
